

Middle Sister

smarty pants chardonnay

The Story

Some girls are born beautiful. Some girls are born rich. And some girls are born smart. The smart girls grow up and use their brains to make money to buy great clothes and travel abroad and throw dinner parties. Where they serve Chardonnay that they didn't spend a fortune on, in wine glasses brought home from their last trip to Paris. Some girls are born smart. And we think they're the luckiest girls of all.
